October 2nd. An excited audience gathered at the Graduate School of Journalism of the City University, New York.

The auditorium was filled with at least three generations of Italians, Italian/Americans and Americans of different descent.

Our guests included several prominent members of the Italian/American community.

The presentation of our web portal dedicated to Italy and Italian America was applauded, as were the warm remarks by the Italian Consul General, who described i-Italy as a needed and exceptional project.
